Personal Identity Matter, an international group exhibition featuring 18 artists from New York, Korea and Macedonia, will take place during February at the Gallery MC in Manhattan. An opening reception will be held on Wednesday, February 1, 2017, from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

From New York Erik Saxon, Fred Bendheim, Daniel G. Hill, Iliana Emilia Garcia, Lorenzo Sanjuan-Pertusa, Marilyn Davidson, Mary Schiliro, Mary Temple and Roberto Azank. From Korea Kai Hyeon-Kyung KIM, Mina Yim, Yeom Sojin, Iksong Jin and Ingyeong Choi. From Macedonia Atanas Atanasoski, Ivanco Talevski, Mensur Bojda and Robert Dandarov

Human relationships and comparisons with others in everyday life help to shape our personal identities. This group show will use art as a tool for understanding these relationships and similarities and exploring our personal identities outside the barriers posed by our regional or ethnic backgrounds.

Philosophical, cultural and artistic exchange will help us progress from curiosity and preconception to experimentation. This group exhibition will serve as a laboratory in which we find that our true identity and reality exist inside us.
